Bledlow Manor Gardens,
Bledlow Ridge Road, Bucks HP27 9PE

By kind permission of Lord Carrington, we invite you to join us for a private visit to the Manor Gardens on Friday, 25th June between 2:00 and 5:00pm. There are over two acres of gardens with classical and modern sculptures, ponds, a paved garden, parterres, shrub borders, old roses and a walled kitchen garden. Maps of the garden will be provided on arrival.

Refreshments will be available and all proceeds will go to the Chiltern Branch of the MND Association to help local people living with the disease and to fund research for a cure. MND is a fatal, rapidly progressing neurological disease that affects the brain and spinal cord. It has no cure at present.

Entry to the Manor Gardens is £5 pp. in advance, £6 on the day with no charge for children or people living with MND, nor for one carer accompanying them.

A limited number of coaches can be accommodated by prior arrangement – please check with one of the two people noted above.

Tickets from Brian Tordoff or Cyndy Mephram (details above) with cheques to MND Association – Chiltern, please

Chenies Manor House
Chenies, Buckinghamshire, WD3 6ER

By kind permission of Mrs Macleod Matthews we invite you to join us for a private visit to the Manor Gardens on Tuesday 14th September between 2:00 and 5:00pm. Chenies Manor House is one of the UK's finest Tudor Mansion Houses. The Grade I Listed building is set in Buckinghamshire's charming estate village of Chenies and overlooks the Chess Valley. The venue's grounds boast award winning gardens and include a sunken garden, herbaceous borders, topiary, a fountain court and a physic garden. Chenies propagate 1500 plus dahlias each year and they are at their best in September.

Refreshments will be available and all proceeds will go to the Chiltern Branch of the MND Association to help local people living with the disease. MND is a fatal, rapidly progressing disease that affects the brain and spinal cord. It has no cure at present.

Entry to the Chenies Manor Gardens is £5 pp. in advance, £6 on the day with no charge for children or people living with MND, nor for one carer accompanying them.
